

The 21st Century Kaplanian Vision of Jewish Education

We rely on the experiences of fellow climbers to guide us to the next plateau of a vibrant Jewish education. Thanks for keeping the journey worthwhile.

Join the journey!

Meet your guide,
Dr. Jeffrey Schein,
and some fellow climbers.

Here is one path common to all climbers.

We have different paths to recommend for individuals who play particular roles in Jewish education.

You can forge your own path as well.

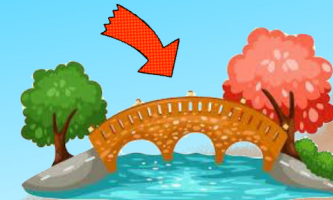

Pause,
Enjoy the Panoramic View,
Collect your New Insights and Challenges.

Wise commentary on our 21st Century Vision serves as a bridge to the future.

This is a great vantage point from which to look at our 21st Century Kaplanian Vision of Jewish Education.

There are certain challenges to Jewish Education that flow through the generations that we must navigate.

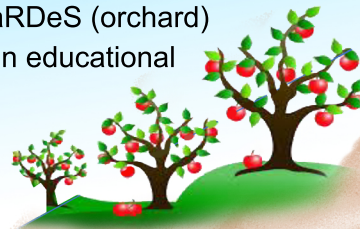

In order to keep moving further up the mountain, we need everyone to contribute questions, comments and suggestions.

We begin our journey up the mountain standing in Kaplan's footsteps, exploring his ideas about Jewish education in the 20th Century.

Visit our PaRDeS (orchard) of Kaplanian educational resources.

You may want to pause and immerse yourself in Kaplan's context.

